LEE COUNTY SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT
SPECIAL REPORTSubject I/m Antonio Martinez Opelika, AL 1/26/06

To the Sheriff of Lee County:

I report the following taking a water bag from I/m
Antonio Martinez which occurred at 3:30 o'clock this P M. at Lee County Detention Center (cell E1)

Below give full-particulars, together with name of principals and witness and their address

While taking an inmate to cell E1, I, ofc William Wiltsie, noticed a water bag tied to a mop handle inside I/m Antonio Martinez's cell.
I told I/m Martinez to give me the mop and water
bag. Martinez untied the laundry bag from around the mop handle and then pulled a plastic bag filled with water out of the laundry bag. I asked why he was lifting weights with his hernia problems. Martinez stated that he was trying to keep his heart pumping.
Martinez was sweating and the veins in his arms were popping out as if he had just finished lifting the water bag. All items were taken out of the cell and Nurse Stewart was notified of what Martinez was doing. The bag weighed approximately 30 to 40 lbs.

State of Alabama Unified Judicial System Form C-81	11/91	ADVICE OF RIGHTS ON INITIAL APPEARANCE BEFORE JUDGE OR MAGISTRATE (Felony)	Case Number
--	-------	---	-------------

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF LEE COUNTY

☒ STATE OF ALABAMA ☐ MUNICIPALITY OF _____

ANTONIO MARTINEZ v. _____, Defendant

This is a first appearance hearing. You are charged with committing the felony offense(s) of ROBBERY I in this Court in violation of _____.

The primary purpose of this hearing is to ensure that you know and understand the charge or charges against you. At this hearing, there will be no determination made about your guilt or innocence of the crime charged, but only a determination that you know and understand the charge or charges against you. If you are before the Court on a complaint following a warrantless arrest, the judge or magistrate will determine whether there is probable cause for the charge against you.

In addition, the purpose of this hearing is to determine whether bail should be set in your case, or, if it has been already set, if it should remain the same, be raised, be lowered, or whether you should be released upon your personal recognizance (that is, your promise to appear for future court proceedings) or released in the custody of some responsible person. In order to make this determination, it will be necessary for the judge or magistrate to ask you some questions concerning your ties with the community.

You are entitled to be represented by an attorney. You have a right to have your own attorney and will be given time and opportunity to retain an attorney. If you are unable to afford an attorney, one will be appointed for you by the court if you qualify for such representation. It will be necessary for you to complete an indigency questionnaire under oath in order for the court to make this determination.

You have a right to talk with your attorney, family, or friends, and if necessary, reasonable means will be provided in order to enable you to do so. You have the right to remain silent. Anything that you say may be used against you.

Because you are charged with a felony, you are entitled to demand a preliminary hearing before a judge or magistrate to determine whether there is sufficient evidence to establish that you probably committed the offense or offenses with which you are charged. You must make this demand within thirty (30) days of the date of arrest. If a hearing is demanded and one is conducted, and, if at the conclusion of the preliminary hearing the judge finds that sufficient evidence has been shown to establish that you probably committed the offense or offenses with which you are charged, the judge will then bind you over for further action by a grand jury. If, on the other hand, the judge finds that the evidence is insufficient to establish that you probably committed the crime or crimes charged, then the judge will dismiss the charge and discharge you from further custody or pre-trial obligations subject to the right of the prosecution to reinstate the charges against you at a later time.

If you are released from custody (whether personal recognizance or otherwise), you must:

- 1.) Appear to answer and submit to all orders and process of the Court having jurisdiction in the case.
- 2.) Refrain from committing any criminal offense.
- 3.) Not depart from the state of Alabama without the leave of the Court having jurisdiction of this case.
- 4.) Promptly notify the Court of any change of address or phone number.
- 5.) Other conditions: _____

The provisions of the Release Order may be revoked or modified by the Court for cause. The Release Order and any appearance bond executed in compliance with it will continue in force and effect until the dismissal, acquittal, or conviction on the charges, unless sooner revoked or modified by the Court. Upon report of a violation of any of the above conditions, a warrant for your arrest will be issued.

I have read or have been advised of the matters herein set forth. I understand the explanation of procedures, rights, and information given to me at the Initial Court Appearance. I also understand that failure to appear as required may subject me to additional charges in the revocation of release.

Re: Inmate Request

Mr. Martinez, I received your request for the address to Immigration. You state that you are a U.S. Citizen, but have you been naturalized? Generally, if you still have a Green Card Number then you have not become a naturalized citizen. At any rate, if you are NOT a naturalized citizen, even though you have a social security number, you still may be deported upon conviction of certain crimes (included the crime you are charged with).

If you have any further questions, here is the address of the person you will need to direct that correspondence to:

ICE Agent Blake Diamond
c/o HIDTA
P.O. Box 1471
Montgomery, AL 36102-1471

I hope that this will help you understand the reason why you are being held on an Immigration Detainer.
